

Call for applications for new positions in the EANO Scientific Committee 2022-2024

Dear EANO Members,

EANO is THE Association for Neuro-Oncology in Europe and has launched several committees where your support and input as experts in the field of Neuro-oncology is highly appreciated.

The EANO is looking for active new members that will start their engagement after the EANO Meeting in Vienna 2022. The Scientific Committee is composed of representatives of different subspecialties with balance regarding European countries and gender. The duration of the position is 2 years, with the possibility of one re-election, depending on the input of the member.

Applicants must be members of EANO (i.e. paid-up members) with residency in a European country. Applications for the Executive Board at the same time are not possible; applications for another EANO Committee is possible by indicating primary and secondary choices, also former Executive Board members are very welcome to apply.

The tasks of the Scientific Committee consists of building the Scientific Programme of EANO Meetings (selection of oral and poster presentations, invited lectures, etc.) and other EANO events (or EANO supported events run by other organizations), together with the Executive Board Member(s) in charge of the Meeting; input for the Website, the Newsletter and the WFNOS online Magazine (advices, review articles, news); any other scientific matter of EANO needing specific expertise (reviewing of grants and fellowships applications, projects) as well as reviewing abstracts for the EANO Meetings.

The election procedure will be as follows:

1. Interested candidates should send a letter of application to the EANO Board explaining their motivation and a standard CV (up to 3 pages) with indication of your specialty as listed above to the EANO Office e-mail address (office@eano.eu). The deadline for submission is May 15, 2022.
2. The EANO Executive Board will review all the applications in June, taking into account the CVs, the geographic representation and specialty to ensure the Scientific Committee has a broad representation.
3. At the General Assembly during the EANO Meeting in Vienna, the Executive Board will present the approved candidates.

We are looking forward to receiving your application!

Yours sincerely,
Matthias Preusser
President, EANO
