

Call for applications for new positions in the EANO Guideline Committee 2024-2026

Dear EANO Members,

EANO is THE Association for Neuro-Oncology in Europe and has launched several committees where your support and input as experts in the field of Neuro-Oncology is highly appreciated.

The Guidelines Committee concentrate its activities on discovering the need per topic and timing as well as responding to Executive Board requests on the need for new or updated guidelines with a focus on interprofessional/interdisciplinary/international guidelines on relevant topics in Neuro-Oncology. If no outside author is appointed, the task is also to prepare and draft guidelines and support the Executive Board in the political process of guideline development for EANO alone or in conjunction with other organizations.

The EANO is looking for active new members who will start their engagement after the EANO Meeting in Glasgow 2024. The Guideline Committee is composed of representatives of different subspecialties with a balance regarding European countries and gender. The duration of the position is 2 years, with the possibility of one re-election, depending on the input of the member.

Applicants must be members of EANO (i.e. paid-up members) with residency in a European country.

Applications for the Executive Board at the same time are not possible; applications for another EANO Committee are possible by indicating primary and secondary choices, also former Executive Board members are very welcome to apply!

The election procedure will be as follows:

1. Interested candidates should send a letter of application to the EANO Board explaining their motivation and a standard CV (up to 3 pages) to the EANO Office e-mail address (office@eano.eu). The deadline for submission is June 09th, 2024.
2. The EANO Executive Board will review all the applications by the end of June, taking into account the CVs, the geographic representation and speciality to ensure the Guideline Committee has a broad representation.
3. During the General Assembly at the EANO Meeting in Glasgow, the Executive Board will present the approved candidates.

Yours sincerely,
Susan Short
President, EANO
